

NULU Fest
SEPT 29 2018
10th ANNIVERSARY!

TENTH ANNIVERSARY NULU FEST IS ALMOST HERE!

This year's festival is one that you will not want to miss! Mark your calendar for Saturday, September 29th, from 11AM-11PM. The band lineup is set and features James Lindsey and Scott T. Smith with a very familiar and well-loved band.

NULU Fest face, Ben Sollee (he was there year one). We'll have regional beers and specialty cocktails and plenty of food and shopping for everyone.

If you would like to volunteer, sign-ups are at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60b044da9ae22a549-nulu>. Booth spaces are still available and you can easily register online. If you'd like to get the word out there about your business through a sponsorship, email Christine at christinevaughan@gmail.com to learn about the opportunities available.

Lastly, if you have any photos or memorabilia from years' past, please send them to Candace at cjavorskik6@gmail.com.

NULU Business Association meetings are now being held at the AC Hotel.

LOUISVILLE RESCUE MISSION

Our neighbors at Louisville Rescue Mission (733 East Jefferson Street, beside Rabbit Hole Distillery) are growing and rebranding!

Please join them for a press conference on Tuesday, September 18th at 10AM announcing their new name, a new campus in Southern Indiana, and new programs at their Louisville campus right here in NULU.

An open house will follow until 12:30PM. Stop by to take a tour, meet their staff, and learn more about their programs that help people permanently overcome homelessness and pursue transformed lives. RSVPs are welcome on Facebook or PR Manager Hillary Bullock: hbullock@louisvillerescuemiission.org.

#MeToo "From Silent to Resilient" | New Paintings by Debra Lott with guest artists Meg White and Rachel Gibbs

Show Dates: September 6th-October 20th | First Friday Reception: September 7th, 6-9PM | Sunday Afternoon Reception September 9th, 1-4PM

"Art is not always about pretty things. It's about who we are, what happened to us, and how our lives are affected." -Elizabeth Brown

Debra Lott is recognized for her figurative paintings that feature and uplift women. In her most recent body of work, Lott spotlights the current #METOO movement where she reveals pivotal moments when women break free from the culture of sexual harassment. "For Me Too" exhibit encourages victims, gives them a voice and promotes healing and hope. The inspirations for this series are the women breaking the silence of sexual abuse. They are the community of survivors who are in the process of healing and moving forward together.

The subjects of these paintings are survivors and represent 'The Silence Breakers'. I've incorporated white ribbons into the paintings as symbols of bondage and muffled voices. The ribbons are unraveling. I've integrated white cords that are symbolic of 'the attached strings' that have manipulated women. They are breaking. The paintings celebrate women standing together, leaning on and aiding one another to encourage healing." www.DebraLott.com

Meg White has created sculpture for over 30 years in a variety of media—paper, stone, clay and bronze. Her subject matter is either figurative with a narrative focus (characters from myths or novels) or wildlife with descriptions of behavior inspiring her work. This exhibition will showcase the female figure in various media including clay, plaster and bronze. www.MegWhiteSculpture.com

Rachel Gibbs is an art educator and practicing artist. She focuses on figurative painting with a surrealist approach. Her work gives a glimpse into different worlds that often hint at the mysterious.

ANGEL'S ENVY DISTILLERY

Angel's Envy hosts the cocktail classes at its Louisville distillery on Thursdays, and each of the three class options includes a full distillery tour and an educational session where guests learn to craft specific Angel's Envy signature cocktails. Reservations are required, and space in each class is limited to 10 tickets, ensuring that guests receive an intimate, in-depth and hands-on learning experience.

More information about each of the cocktail classes can be found below, or by visiting <https://www.angelsenvy.com/distillery/visit/>.

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS:

In the Henderson Cocktail Class, guests will learn how to make the Angel's Envy signature distillery cocktail, The Henderson. Each guest will work at his or her own personal cocktail station and will learn the techniques and science behind each step, including making a syrup, proper proportioning and selecting a garnish to complement his or her cocktail. Costing $55 per person, the class includes a full distillery tour, a cocktail, appetizers and a special parting gift from Angel's Envy that guests can use to craft their own cocktails at home.

The Henderson Cocktail Class is offered on select Thursdays at 5:30PM; upcoming dates include August 9th, September 13th, October 11th, November 1st and December 13th.

In the Rye Cocktail Class, guests will learn how to craft delicious cocktails featuring Angel's Envy award-winning Angel's Envy Rye Finished in Rum Barrels. Each guest will work at his or her own personal cocktail station and will learn the techniques used to craft a rye cocktail through hands-on instruction. At $75 per person, the class includes a full distillery tour, a cocktail, appetizers and a gift from Angel's Envy that guests can use in their future cocktail-making endeavors. Guest will also have the option to purchase a bottle of Angel's Envy Rye Finished in Rum Barrels.

The Rye Cocktail Class is offered on select Thursdays at 5:30PM; upcoming dates include August 16th, August 30th, September 6th, October 18th, November 15th and December 20th.

In the Behind the Bar Class, guests will step behind the Angel's Envy Finishing Room bar for an in-depth and hands-on master class in the art of creating delicious cocktails, taught by a visiting Angel's Envy Lead Whiskey Guardian. Guests will get an interactive lesson as they practice and learn the proper technique, theory and science behind each step, as well as general bartender dos and don'ts from a top professional. At $90 per person, the class includes a full distillery tour, two cocktails, appetizers created by a local chef and take-home gifts to help guest craft their own cocktails at home.

The Behind the Bar Class is offered on select Thursdays at 5:30PM; upcoming dates include September 27th, October 25th, November 29th and December 27th.
