BOTTLE YOUR OWN ANGEL'S ENVY AT THE DISTILLERY

A Hands-On, Behind the Scenes Experience

While our bottling line typically relies on a team of 11 to 12 bottling experts working together, we're proud to offer you the chance to put the finishing touches on our family's masterpiece. You'll fill, cork and label your own personal bottle of Angel's Envy, and then carry it home in a beautiful commemorative box, along with a display stand created from an Angel's Envy barrel stave.

During this experience, you'll also learn how we arrived at our distinctive bottle design, why the machine we use to cork our bottles holds a special place in our hearts, and how bottling whiskey came to be the standard in America.

It's a unique opportunity to get a behind the scenes look at an important part of our operations, and an unforgettable experience. We look forward to having you!

Reservation Details

- Your $99.99 registration fee will include up to an hour-long experience led by one of our Angel's Envy Distillery Ambassadors, a 750ml bottle of Angel's Envy Port Finish, a commemorative box case and display stand.
- One guest may join you during your experience, but only ticket holders can fill a commemorative bottle.

Bottle Your Own experiences are offered on Fridays, between 10:10AM-4:10PM. Must be 21 to purchase.

REVELRY GALLERY

Revelry Gallery welcomes Monica Stewart for her first ever solo show featuring her intricate and narrative paper cuts. This whimsical collection of magical paper cuts invites you into a fairytale world. The subject of each piece is just as impressive as the skill it took Monica to create these paper folk fantasies. We are thrilled to introduce this young artist to the world, as Monica is currently pursuing her MFA at University of Louisville Hite Art Institute. We are sure this will be her first of many successful and inventive shows.

WHO: Monica Stewart
 WHAT: Short Cuts & Paper Tales
 WHEN: Friday, May 11th 7-10PM
 WHERE: Revelry Boutique Gallery, 742 East Market Street

"In my work, I explore the relationships between narrative and object. Fairy tales and folk art traditions influence my work in paper cutting, as stock characters, archetypes, and object motifs lend themselves to silhouettes. By cutting, rearranging, and embellishing, I create works that enter the realm of objects. Made with a specific use or magical intention, these new items invite viewers to imagine their potential use or function. Like an impossible task made possible, or an unwanted gift bestowed, they make allusions to a wider story, while also taking on a life of their own." ~Monica Stewart

PYRO GALLERY

MODERN MUSE: A duo exhibition featuring Pyro Member, Claudia Hammer and guest artist, Mary Dennis Kannapell. April 12th to May 26th | Artist Reception, Sunday, April 15th, 12-4PM | Artist Talk, Saturday, April 21st, 11AM.

Claudia Hammer has a considerable reputation for painting portraits, and the human figure, but more recently she has turned her attention to static objects and renders them with a sufficient degree of realism to impress us with her technique, but there is also an atmosphere, crafted from evocative background textures and a sophisticated sense of light, that places these things in the realm of misty memory. -Keith Waits, from Louisville Visual Art's Artebella, October 2017.

Mary Dennis Kannapell's work in the "Modern Muse" is a playful dance of materials, forms and surface techniques. This panoply of sculptures are largely ceramic, vary in scale and evoke the mystery of existence. A still form can breathe with presence giving the viewer a moment of contemplation on the interconnected essence of life.
